

ThinkDIFFERENTLY.

dutchessny.gov

Improving Treatment Outcomes for Individuals with Cognitive Challenges

Friday, May 6th • 8:30 AM– 4:00 PM

Register by May 5th at: dutchessny.gov/JuliaBrower

This event will be held both virtually and in-person, at 230 North Rd. Poughkeepsie
50 seats available for in-person

At this workshop, Julia Brower, CASAC Advanced Counselor, will lead discussion on:

- A generalized overview of Cognitive Challenges and its impact on treatment
- Functional presentation of Cognitive Challenges in SUD/MH settings
- Assessments and treatment planning, person-centered treatment planning
- Generalized approaches to treatment adaptation
- Modifying/applying evidence-based practices

5 Continuing Education Units available for LMSW, LCSW, and LCSW-R
& 5 Continuing Education Units available for CASAC

Dutchess County Department of Behavioral & Community Health
230 North Road Poughkeepsie, NY 12601

Training Schedule

8:30 — 9:00 am Registration/ In-person Check in

9:00 am Introduction/ Welcome

9:15 am — 12:00p (an AM break will be given around 10:15a)

- General overview of Cognitive Challenges and impact on treatment
- Functional presentation of Cognitive Challenges in SUD/MH settings
- Assessments/DSM Criteria

12:00 — 1:00pm Lunch

1:00 am — 4:00p (a PM break will be given around 2: 30p)

- Psycho-socials & Person-Centered Treatment Planning
- Generalized approaches to treatment adaptation
- Applying/generalizing & Modifying Evidence-Based Practices

5 CEUs available for LMSW, LCSW and LCSW-R provided by the Dutchess County Department of Behavioral and Community Health
&

5 CASAC CEUs/virtual training hours available provided by Julia Brower, CASAC Advanced Counselor

CEUs available if a participant stays for the entire training and complete a survey/quiz, those who do not attend the entire time will not be eligible to receive credit.

For more information or if you need assistance please contact :
Kaeleigh Place (845) 486-2766 or by email at kplace@dutchessny.gov

